

The election passed yesterday with remarkable quiet in every respect. There was no fighting and no drunkenness. The Chief of Police deserves credit for his arrangements and the promptitude of his effort. Last night the newspaper offices were returned to a late hour by anxious inquirers for news.

The reason that we present a portion of our election returns in this edition, is that we were compelled to work on our regular edition up to a late hour, and it is rather awkward, but the best we could do owing to the confusion in our press-room consequent upon putting in a new engine and boiler.

Dr. E. K. Seely has been appointed physician to the jail. He is an accomplished physician and clever gentleman, and the appointment is in worthy and trustworthy hands.

A lunch, elected by a large majority, will be served up by Messrs. Shaw & Porter, at the Southern Restaurant, corner Fifth and Court streets, (late Parker's). Fine oyster soup, and other luxuries to the inward man. Call and see the new proprietors.

This famous magician was in town yesterday, on route for Memphis, where he will commence a series of entertainments on Monday next.

Dr. H. C. Godey's Lady's Book for December is a capital number. Frank Madison has it.

M. P. Honeoy is lying in the Memphis jail waiting a requisition from the Governor of Ohio, to answer a charge of forgery in that State, which is alleged against him.

Dr. Jones, the hospital physician, estimates the number of cases of broken bones in Memphis during the fall at two thousand. The disease was not a fatal one, but it caused much suffering.

Laura Keene's real name is Sally Taylor.

A new telegraph line has been erected from Paducah to Louisville, forming a connection with Cairo and St. Louis.

Mr. Alexander Moore, one of the old est citizens of Bardonia, died last Thursday morning, after an illness of several years.

The editor of the Star of Marion is justly indignant that a correspondent of our State had been converted to Breckinridge. It was the correspondent, not Jack, who was the knave. We apologize, Mr. Jack.

The artisan well at Lebanon has reached the depth of 100 feet, and is proceeding slowly into the bowels of the earth.

Source Davis—a man named Joseph King, from Kentucky, died very suddenly in Cincinnati on Monday morning. He was on a visit to the family of a friend, named Moore, who keeps a boarding-house on Third street, near Race. Moore does not seem to have received King with a friendly hospitality, for he was allowed to sleep in an out-house during his stay. Monday morning King determined to go home, but Mrs. Moore pressed him to stay to breakfast, and he consented. He sat down to the table, and had scarcely eaten a few mouthfuls, when he fell over in his chair and suddenly expired. The jury of inquest found that he died from strangulation. It was, however, more than suspected that he died from a drunken fit.

THE VOTE IN THE CITY.

We regret that we were unable to perfect our table in time for the regular issue of our paper, and it will be furnished in the extra accompanying copy. The total vote of the city was 7,465. Bell received 3,821 Douglas 2,715, Breckinridge 882 and Lincoln 93 votes.

Vote of the State.
Jefferson county, Gilman, Douglas 12, Bell 70, Breckinridge 28, Lincoln 2.
Jefferson county, M. H. H. Douglas 12, Bell 70, Breckinridge 28, Lincoln 2.

THE OREGON FAIR.—Last night was the second night of St. Vincent's Orphan Fair. The large hall of Masonic Temple has been fitted up and arranged in a fine manner, and was well lighted with gas and electricity. The present receipts were $1,000. The tables are all adorned with the most beautiful and useful articles, and all those who wish to spend a leisure hour pleasantly and make the heart of the orphan glad, should attend the fair during the week.

THEATRE.—The political excitement of last evening prevented a large attendance at the performance of the Theatre. The performance was, however, of a character which argues well for the success of the stock company during the rest of the week. The new comedienne, Miss Ruth, is a decided success. Her performance, very pretty and full of grace, elicited much applause.

To-night Brian Boonville and the Man Without a Head, will be performed. They are both excellent plays, and cannot fail to attract a full house.

THE BUILDING AND LEASE OF GOOD.—The building and lease of good, with the carriage, buggy, and everything necessary to the coach manufacturing business, lately occupied by A. Y. Johnson & Son, on Jefferson street, between Sixth and Seventh, is to be sold by Mr. C. C. Spencer, at auction, this morning, on liberal terms.

WE ARE ASKED TO LET THE SPECIAL ATTENTION OF those who want of elegant work, to Mr. C. C. Spencer, at auction, this morning, on liberal terms.
